Volume 6 Hartford, July, 1940 Number 4

At the April meeting, Samuel H. Fisher of Litchfield and James Lippincott Goodwin of Hartford, were elected Vice Presidents of the Society to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Frank Farnsworth Starr and Annie Burr Jennings, and President Waterman named Earle E. Dimon of Farmington as a member of the Committee on Endowment to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Miss Jennings.

Thompson R. Harlow, Assistant Librarian of the Society, read a paper entitled: "The Sons of Liberty, or a Stamp-Man Hanging on a Tree." The paper traced the development of the Sons of Liberty to the time of the resignation in September, 1765, of Jared Ingersoll, the Stamp Distributor.

It was voted at the May meeting to publish the records beginning in 1712 of the Suffield Congregational Church.

Miss Constance V. Carrier of New Britain, read a paper entitled: "Survey of the Poetry Printed in the 'Courant' from 1780 to 1800." Numerous carefully selected extracts from the poems were given showing their religious nature and political bias.

The Annual Meeting was held on May twenty-third at which time the President read his address and the reports of the Librarian and Treasurer were presented. At this time the Librarian announced his resignation and Thompson R. Harlow was appointed Librarian by the Standing Committee. The previous officers were re-elected except that Miss Florence S. Marcy Crofut was elected Corresponding Secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the advancing of Samuel H. Fisher to a Vice Presidency.

A portion of the First Ecclesiastical Society of Norwich was established in 1718 as a distinct society and in 1722 was named Newent. A part of Norwich including Newent Society was incorporated in 1786 as the town of Lisbon. The Separatist Church in Newent is said to have been organized in 1750. In addition to the data which follows, the records are understood to contain the Articles of Faith and record of church trials. John Palmer whose name appears in them was evidently the first pastor and Jeremiah Tracy is also mentioned as a pastor. The short and imperfect record which follows is printed, with the permission of that Society, from a copy belonging to the Society of Colonial Dames in the State of Connecticut and now on deposit with this Society. The present location of the original record is unknown to the editor.
